International Conference on Optimization 2011

June 15-17, 2011, Pfalz-Akademie Lambrecht

Organizers: Volker Schulz (Trier) and Marc Steinbach (Hannover)

Scope: The conference covers theory and practice in all branches of mathematical optimization as there are, e.g.,

- Linear Programming
- Discrete and Combinatorial Optimization
- Nonlinear Programming
- Optimal Control
- Stochastic Programming
- Multiobjective Programming
- Application of Optimization in Real-World Problems

Young researches from all areas of optimization are especially encouraged to participate and to present their work. The conference will provide a good opportunity for exchanging ideas and for establishing contacts with colleagues in a friendly atmosphere.

Invited speakers:

- Mirjam Dür, University of Groningen, Netherlands
- Armin Fügenschuh, ZIB Berlin, Germany
- René Henrion, WIAS Berlin, Germany
- Roland Herzog, TU Chemnitz, Germany

Social program: Guided tour and dinner at Hambacher Schloss

Program committee:

V. Schulz, Trier; M. Steinbach, Hannover;
S. de Vries, Trier; R. Schultz, Duisburg;
R. Weismantel, Zürich; E. Sachs, Trier;
R. Tichatschke, Trier
